
ABOUT PHIRED UP PRODUCTIONS

We help fraternities and sororities grow. Since 2002 we've been helping fraternities and sororities increase the quantity of quality members they attract by doing world class research, providing deep level results-driving coaching services, and delivering culture-changing educational services.

While the team's educational delivery and professional speaking skills consistently get exceptionally rave reviews, Phired Up prides itself on the fact that organizations and individuals that adopt its Dynamic Recruitment and Social Excellence principles report a remarkably higher quantity of quality members. We get results.

PHIRED UP YEAR ROUND RECRUITMENT COACHING SUPPORT

Year round recruitment strategies deserve year round support. Phired Up's Year Round Coaching Partnership provides education, measurement, accountability, support, and a dedicated coach who cares about the chapter's long-term health year after year. Just as many healthy organizations hire an accountant, a house manager, or a chef for more than one day, RECRUITMENT (of all the chapter's needs) deserves year round consistent support.

Fraternity and sorority chapters that are truly committed to creating a culture of recruitment success choose to hire Phired Up as their long-term recruitment coach. Phired Up offers year round recruitment education and support to ensure a chapter's deep understanding, and practical application of Dynamic Recruitment and Social Excellence.

Includes up front Chapter Recruitment Diagnostics assessment, an annual on-site training (additional days available), access to Phired Up's proprietary on-line recruitment videos, books, exercises and full curriculum for a full year, and 12 distance coaching sessions for an entire chapter. All these interventions are strategically built to get and keep the chapter "on system" for repeatable, predictable recruitment results. Phired Up's recruitment philosophy challenges chapters to widen their selection pool, identify values-based membership standards, and implement proven prescribed strategies that will result in recruitment success.

Great teams need a great coach. Fraternities and sororities are no different. Our organizations are rooted in deep traditions of excellence, and investing in the most important factor impacting that excellence just makes sense. The "lifeblood" of your organization (recruitment) deserves a professional to monitor its health, measure its effectiveness, and provide support to ensure longevity and quality.

Invest in a true long-term recruitment solution, and become a Recruitment Coaching Partner.
